To the Partners of Hagyard Equine Medical Institute,

Please allow me to formally welcome Hagyard as an Official Partner of Breeders' Cup and the Breeders' Cup World Championships. The Hagyard brand in conjunction with the World Championships is a tribute to the great athletes that will be showcased on October 30-31, 2015 at Keeneland.

Breeders' Cup takes pride in the safety and security of the world class Thoroughbreds that come to compete at the World Championships. Our partnership with Hagyard expands our commitment to safety with the presence of the Hagyard Equine Trauma Unit and a staff of eminent veterinarians and technicians. The addition of this unit on-site now gives Breeders' Cup unprecedented veterinary coverage at the World Championships. Additionally, Hagyard will administer all blood sampling and temperature readings for international participants thereby ensuring the efficient response and turnaround required.

Breeders' Cup strives to be the "best of the best" in Thoroughbred racing and that extends to our partners. Without question, Hagyard Equine Medical Institute fits this model in what we hope will be a partnership for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Craig Fravel
